Studio UpDate December 29

We hope everyone had a great Christmas and will have fun New Year's Eve. Classes resume on Monday, Jan 4. See you next week.

TUITION

Every month there is a memo on the tuition policy. It is repeated below.

It seems that during the holidays a great number of people are late with their tuition.

We want you to know that January tuition is due by Decemeber 31 to be discounted. You can drop your check off at the studio through the mail slot on the office door or pay on line with paypal at the studio websige.

If you wait until classes resume to pay tuition it will be a the higher rate. The regular rate is $5 per class more.

If you wait until after the 5th it will be at the higher rate plus a $15 late fee added.

Discounted = Tuition received by the last day of previous month

Regular = Tuition received between the 1st - 5th

Late = Tuition received after the 5th.

TUITION PRE-PAY

The fall pre-pay has expired and those of you that took advantage of it can choose to pay monthly tuition starting with January or do another prepay for Jan-May. That would be due by Dec 31.

PRIVATE LESSONS

Tuition for private lessons need to be paid to the instructor, but left at the studio by the 5th of the month.

There is a $20 late fee for private tuition received after the 5th.

NUTCRACKER AND GRINCH

Christina and I went to see Miss Jenny (our Thrusday Ballet Instructor) perform in the Nutcracker with the California Ballet. Miss Jenny had several roles to dance, and her performances were flawless. I wish her class could have seen her performance. Maybe next year.

Christina and I also went to see the Grinch at the Old Globe, mainly because one of our old students was in it, Anna George. Anna isn't dancing anymore, she is devoteing all her spare time to Stage, which is her passion. And boy you could tell. Watching Anna on stage was a joy, she was always in charater, very, very professional. We got to visit with Anna backstage after the show and she is defintley in her element in the Theatrical enviroment. I know we'll be seeing more of Anna on the stage.

COMPETITION PEP RALLY

With the exception of the pizza that we got from Round Table Pizza (which we won't again) the Pep Rally went great and was so much fun. The kids were full of team spirit, and so creative on putting together their team-spirit outfits. Veronica will have some pictures and videos up on our facebook page soon.
